

PEER IMPACT NETWORK

Connection is inclusion. Build an inclusive community together.

Counselling and Person Enrichment Section

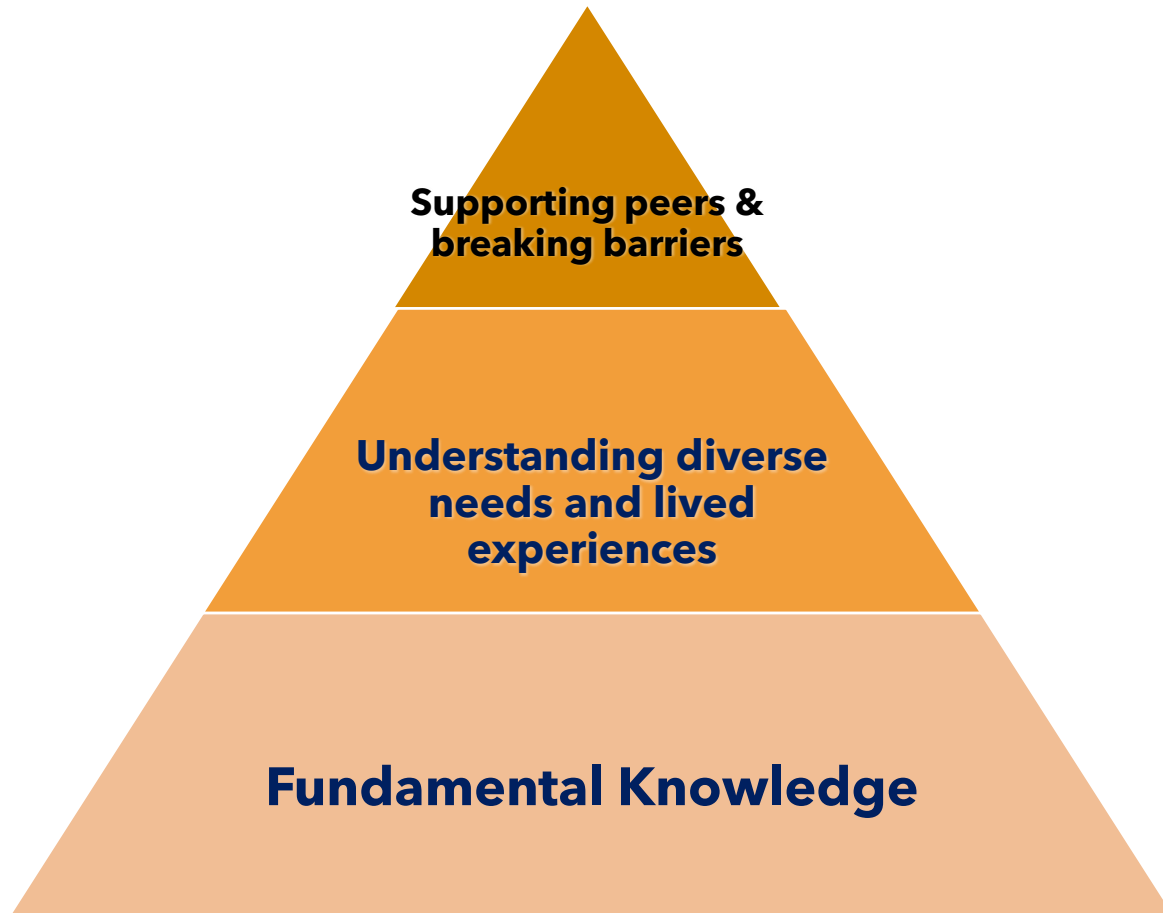

○ Peer Impact Network (PIN)

- Objective - Address students' needs
- Motto: Connection is Inclusion

○ Programme design

Training Opportunities

Supporting peers & breaking barriers

Understanding diverse needs and lived experiences

Fundamental Knowledge

Service opportunity

As a companion

- Peer tutor, Study buddy, Group facilitator

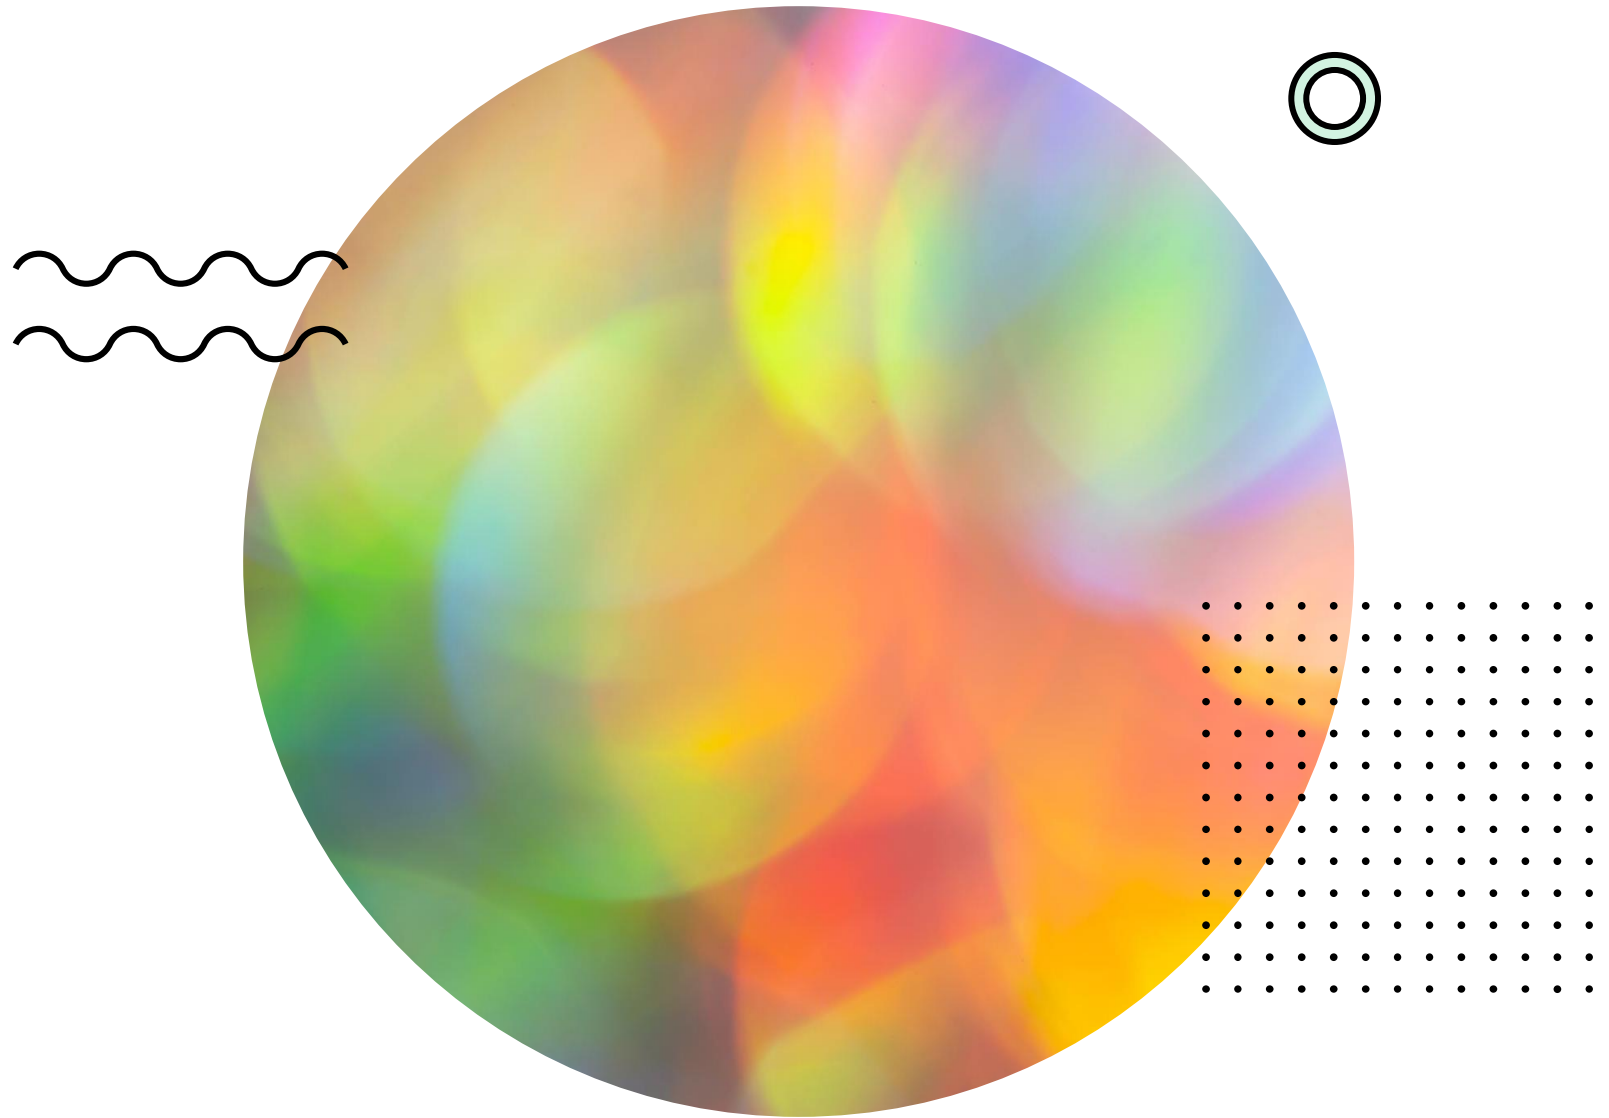

As an advocate

- Initiate awareness raising campaigns, new activities or support services

P E E R
I M P A C T
N E T W O R K

EXPERIENCES AND LEARNINGS

Joining PIN

Loneliness

The need for support

Trainings

Mental health

Workshop on Microaggression and Inclusive Language, Non-judgmental Communication

Cultural exchange Workshop on Addressing Difficulties in Learning Foreign Languages

Service Opportunities

LANGUAGE TUTORING

What is the difference between Survival Cantonese and other Cantonese courses?
Survival Cantonese is not a structured academic course for Cantonese learning. It focuses more on phrases and short dialogues to facilitate non-local students' adjustment. Being a newcomer to Hong Kong, you will practise the basics for greetings and everyday scenarios.

Tutee's Commitment:
To attend two 1-hour practice sessions hosted by your Peer Tutor

What can be expected from the tutorials?

Learn essential Cantonese phrases/ dialogues & local cultures

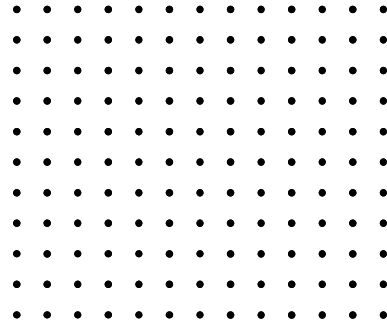

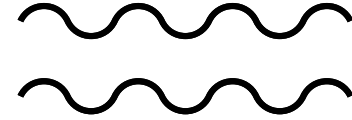

Carefree casual chats with natives

Build new friendships across countries, disciplines/ levels of study

Service Opportunities

SEN CONNECT
BOOTH DAY

Appreciating Diversity, Recognizing Similarities

different values,
hobbies, talents

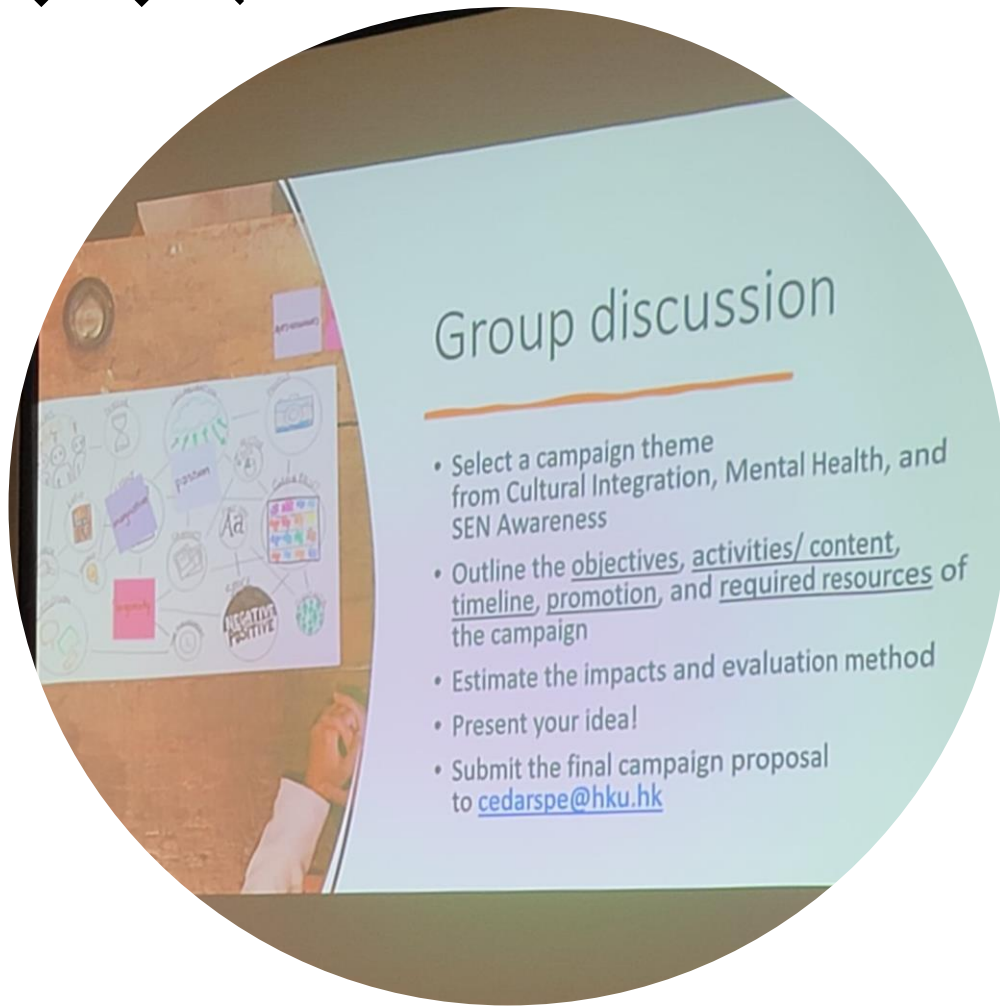

common goals
and desires

The Value of Discussion

Lively group dynamic

Comprehensive plans

